

ABOUT NFL FLAG:

- NFL FLAG is the official flag football program of the NFL.
- Now entering its 25th year, NFL FLAG is the largest flag football program in the country, offered by over 1,500 independent leagues in all 50 states and Canada.
- Over 500,000 boys and girls aged 5-17 play in NFL FLAG leagues each year.
- NFL FLAG is the only flag football program where kids wear officially licensed NFL gear and get a chance to represent their favorite teams.
- All NFL FLAG leagues are eligible to send teams to the NFL FLAG Open tournament series and the Regional tournament series, with winning teams playing at championship games held on site at the Pro Bowl and Super Bowl!

NFL FLAG OFFERS A SAFE ENVIRONMENT FOR KIDS AND FAMILIES

- NFL FLAG requires that all league operators and coaches be background checked before they are eligible to participate.
- All NFL FLAG leagues carry at least $1M in general liability insurance, and NFL FLAG makes secondary accident insurance available to leagues.

COVID PROTOCOLS FOR SPRING 2021:

- Flag football played under NFL FLAG is no contact, and its 5 on 5 format means that there is sufficient space to spread out on the field.
- Flag football is classified by most states as a low or medium risk sport for COVID return to play guidelines.
- NFL FLAG has promoted a rigorous set of return to play protocols to its local league operators as they navigate COVID. Read more about these protocols at <https://nflflag.com/return-to-play>
